

Rosecrance Intervention Services

Leaders in recovery.
Champions of hope.

Let us help you navigate the next steps to getting your loved one to accept the help that is needed.

The Rosecrance Intervention Team works with families and individuals of all ages, providing a unique and personalized approach with multiple perspectives to your loved one's situation, whether they are a teen, young adult, spouse, sibling, parent, or first responder. We believe in the power of the family, love, respect, trust, and dignity.

We know how devastating it is for all family members to watch their loved one become consumed by substance use and mental health challenges, and we understand the feelings of despair, hopelessness, and fear that families have. Working with our Intervention Team will alleviate some of those feelings and will increase the chances of your loved one accepting help. We are here to answer questions, give clear direction, and lay out a workable plan to motivate your loved one to move forward with help.

Services:

- Meet with parent, spouse, or any family member who is concerned about a loved one via Zoom meeting, phone conference, or in person
- Discuss and provide guidance on the next steps
- Examine how to motivate your loved one to accept the help they need

If an intervention is the next step:

- Meet with participants of the intervention
- Discuss and lay out details of the intervention, including barriers or excuses that may prevent a loved one from accepting help
- Address any questions or concerns that participants may have
- Guide participants on writing letters that will be read during intervention
- Facilitate intervention in a loving, effective way
- Act as the liaison between the family and Rosecrance

"I love helping families navigate the next steps to getting their loved one to accept help. I have personally lived through the devastation of what addiction can do to families. I understand the despair and the many roadblocks that are in the way, but I have also witnessed and experienced the beauty of recovery. I will walk the journey with families with love, respect, and dignity for their loved one who is battling the disease of addiction." —Sandi Lybert

PRAISE FOR ROSECRANCE INTERVENTION SERVICES

"This morning I felt like you grabbed me and said 'I got you' which truly meant the world to me. I don't ever ask for help, let alone allow someone to help me, but something was different with you. Truly from the bottom of my heart, THANK YOU!"

—Adult man who reached out and received help through Rosecrance

"My husband and I spoke with you about a week ago regarding our son who was resistant to go to treatment. I just wanted to tell you thank you again. He got there yesterday and so far he is doing really well. Thank you for helping us get across the line and urge him to make some choices and possible changes."

—Mother of adolescent who entered treatment at Rosecrance
